

Isane in Nordfjord

My mother's father was born and raised at the farm Isane in Nordfjord. He was educated as a teacher in Tromsø and was practising teaching in Østfold before he moved to Oslo. My mother was born in Thune in Østfold. My Grandfather, Ole Steffensen Isene, became the General Secretary of Blå Kors, a christian organization dedicated to help alcoholics and to get rid of alcoholism. The organization still exists.

Here are a few pictures from Isane.
